

FILE COPY
RETURN TO LIBRARY

25X1A

ILLEGIB

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

COUNTRY

Korea

DATE DISTR

25X1

SUBJECT

Naval Information: Soviet Submarine Base
at Chongjin

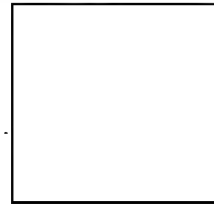

NO. OF PAGES

DATE OF ACQUISITION

25X1A

FILE COPY
RETURN TO LIBRARY
25X1X

NO. OF ENCL.
(LISTED BELOW)SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

The former Japan Iron Works wharf in Chongjin (Seishin) (129-49, 41-46) is now being used by the Soviet Navy as a submarine base. The wharf can berth seven or eight 1,000-ton ships. In the early part of 1945, the Japanese made use of this wharf as a submarine base.

25X1A

25X1

Comments: [redacted] reported that in October 1947 the Soviets were constructing a dock for submarines in Chongjin Harbor. Also, according to [redacted] a new shallow-depth Industrial Harbor was under construction near the Japan Iron Works in Chongjin southwestward of the mouth and the southwest bank of the Susong River.)

ILLEGIB

